

Brian Migwi

INTERNSHIP STUDENT

Profile

I am a resourceful and dedicated varsity graduate with excellent social skills and a demonstrated commitment to providing great improvement in any role tasked to me. I have strong organizational abilities, with proven success managing multiple academic projects and volunteering events. I'm well-rounded and a professional team player dedicated to continuing the pursuit of greatness at a professional level in the outside world. Adaptive to a myriad of circumstances for the sake of unforeseen events that happen in the natural course of work, control, and composure are necessary virtues that I have honed over time. My ideal career objectives revolve around data and cybersecurity.
